

CONSCIOUS PARENTING:
A FUN-FILLED EVENT
FOR PARENTS & CHILDREN
SUNDAY, MARCH 6 2 – 4 P.M.

REALLY READY TO READ!

Harvard Business School Community Partners invite you to join Meredith Oppenheim ('01) and world-renowned psychologist Dr. Shefali Tsabary to learn about Conscious Parenting, a philosophy and bestselling book forwarded by the HH The Dalai Lama, that revolutionizes the parenting journey and allows us to transform our relationship with our children.

Learn how Meredith put this philosophy into practice when the word games she and her daughter created inspired their self-published book Really Ready to Read which generated over $10,000 on Kickstarter with proceeds going to early literacy charities.

Literacy games, crafts, dance, music and more for children 4 – 8 years of age.

Event location: Society of Illustrators – 128 E 63rd St (between Park & Lex)
Register in advance: hbscny.org/events, $30/adult and $5/child
